Statement on Antiracism, Equity, and Inclusion in SRCD Publications

What are Monographs?

Monographs are extended works, focused on specialized topics, judged to make significant contributions to SRCD’s mission—advancing developmental science and promoting its use to improve human lives.
Statement on Anti-racism, Equity, and Inclusion in SRCD Publications

As our highly regarded journals are perhaps the most public-facing element and explicitly gatekeeping mechanism of the SRCD enterprise, we must critically examine the extent to which our journals, Editors and Editorial Boards, reviewers and review standards, and Publications Committee activities implement practices and policies grounded in inclusive and anti-racist principles. Monograph Matters (MM) is a new initiative of Monographs Editor, Lynn S. Liben. This web- and media-based forum was designed as a companion website for the Monographs publication and is meant to magnify the reach, usability, and impact of Monographs. Practitioners, researchers, and educators, alike, will find useful resources based on the subject of recent Monographs to use in the classroom or in their occupation, including videos and teaching resources.
