Monographs of the Society for Research in Child Development

Since 1935 Monographs of the Society for Research in Child Development (Monographs) has presented in-depth research studies and significant findings in child development and its related disciplines. Like all SRCD publications Monographs enables development specialists from many disciplines to share their data, techniques, research methods, and conclusions.

2018 Journal Impact Factor Scores

2-Year Impact Factor: 2.051
5-Year Impact Factor: 2.781

2018 ISI Journal Citation Reports © Ranking

Psychology, Developmental: 33 out of 74

SRCD members receive full digital access Monographs. If you are an SRCD member and would like to access the publication, please log in to your SRCD member account. If you continue to experience problems accessing the full articles, switch web browsers and log in again. Not an SRCD member? Learn more about the benefits of membership.

What are Monographs?

Monographs are extended works, focused on specialized topics, judged to make significant contributions to SRCD’s mission—advancing developmental science and promoting its use to improve human lives.

Contact: monographs@srcd.org
Monograph Matters (MM) is a new initiative of Monographs Editor, Lynn S. Liben. This web- and media-based forum was designed as a companion website for the Monographs publication and is meant to magnify the reach, usability, and impact of Monographs. Practitioners, researchers, and educators, alike, will find useful resources based on the subject of recent Monographs to use in the classroom or in their occupation, including videos and teaching resources.

Visit the Monograph Matters website
Editorial Statement from Monographs Editor-In-Chief, Lynn S. Liben

Editor-In-Chief, Lynn S. Liben, outlines her future plans for the Monographs journal, including the new set-up, submission guidelines, and Monograph Matters.

Read the full statement