MEET THE SPEAKERS

Join us for SRCD's Teaching Committee fall webinar as we delve deeper into equity-mindedness in the syllabus and beyond. You may view our summer webinar series recordings here. This time, our spotlight shines on how to accommodate diverse student needs for an enriched learning experience. We are excited to welcome our two panelists, Dr. Michele L. Zaccario, Associate Professor of Psychology at Pace University, and Ms. Enjie Hall, Director at Disability Resource Center at the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Zaccario will first talk about invaluable strategies to support students facing mental health challenges and to create a more inclusive and positive classroom environment and learning experience. Ms. Hall will then focus on best practices for accommodating students with learning disabilities and related obstacles, ensuring every learner can thrive. Don't miss out! Join us in this dynamic exploration of student empowerment and engagement. Together, we'll make education truly accessible and equitable.
