

EVENT

The 18th Annual Coalition for National Science Funding Exhibition and Reception

EVENT DETAILS

When?

TUESDAY, MAY 15, 2012 5:30PM TO TUESDAY,
MAY 15, 2012 7:30PM

Where?

Washington, D.C.

Hosted by

Coalition for National Science Funding (CNSF)

On May 15, 2012, SRCD sponsored an exhibit for a congressional exhibition and reception on STEM Research and Education: Underpinning American Innovation.

SRCD featured research: The Role of Families in Motivating Latino Youth to Pursue Science in High School
by Sandra Simpkins, Ph.D., Arizona State University

Resources from the Exhibition

- Event invitation
- Exhibitors
- Fact sheet about the National Science Foundation's impact on the state of Arizona.

Martha Zaslow (left), Director of SRCD's Office for Policy and Communications, with Sandra Simpkins (right), an SRCD member from Arizona State University.

Sandra Simpkins (right) and Martha Zaslow (center) engage with Representative Rush Holt (left), a Representative from the 12th Congressional District of New Jersey.