Call for Commentaries: Contemporary Mobile Technology and Child and Adolescent Development

The editorial team of Child Development invites commentaries for articles included in the special section “Contemporary Mobile Technology and Child and Adolescent Development,” edited by Zheng Yan and Lennart Hardell.

Commentaries may discuss one or more articles from the section, and should not exceed 15 pages double-spaced (inclusive of figures, tables, and references). All submissions will be peer-reviewed. Please submit your commentary to <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/childdev> by July 15, 2017, referencing the special section in ScholarOne and in the article’s cover letter.

Submission guidelines may be found here. All commentaries should adhere to APA style.

Specific questions about this process may be directed to cdev@srcd.org.
