2019 Tri-Caucus Sessions Schedule

Thursday, March 21:

SRCD Latino Caucus - Café con Leche

9:30am - 11:00am

Room 336, Baltimore Convention Center

The focus of this session is to strengthen the pipeline of researchers of Latino children and families through this informal networking event. Senior and Junior researchers are invited to meet each other in an informal context and learn about each other's research interests.

Tri-Caucus Intersectional Lounge - Hosted by the SRCD Black Caucus

12:15pm - 2:00pm

Room 336, Baltimore Convention Center

Intersectionality is a theoretical framework and strategy that begins with the experiences of marginalized groups and examines the interconnected structures of power that affect individual and group identities and choices. This approach promotes social justice and social change by linking research and practice. The Intersectional Lounge is an opportunity for networking and mentoring for Tri-Caucus members. Mentoring panels will be held on the following topic areas:

- Coping with the Ethnic Tax in Academia
- Work-life Balance
- Managing the Tenure & Promotion Process
- Job searching & Post docs
- Beyond Academia: Alternative Professional Career Paths

Joint SRCD Latino Caucus & National Research Center on Hispanic Children and Families Mentoring Event

2:15pm - 3:45pm

Room 337/338, Baltimore Convention Center

The goal of this event is to provide one-on-one mentoring opportunities for graduate student researchers of Latino children and families. SRCD Latino Caucus will match mentors and graduate student mentees prior to event. This session will be a venue for mentors and mentees to meet.

SRCD Asian Caucus Speed Mentoring

4:00pm - 5:30pm

Room 336, Baltimore Convention Center

The SRCD Asian Caucus is hosting a speed mentoring opportunity for Asian Caucus members. The goal is to provide graduate students and early career scholars with an opportunity to network and learn from mid-career and senior scholars in a fun, interactive way. Be ready to ask questions and be asked questions about your research and professional development. Learn from peers and more established scholars in developmental science. Open to all Asian Caucus members.
