

Call for Submissions

Construction of the 'Other': Development, Consequences, and Applied Implications of Prejudice and Discrimination

May 4 - 6, 2020 | Rio Grande, Puerto Rico, USA

Submissions accepted: Mid-September 2019

Submission Deadline: October 8, 2019

Organizers: Cynthia García Coll, Universidad de Puerto Rico; Gustavo Carlo, University of Missouri; Linda C. Halgunseth, University of Connecticut; Lisa M. López, University of South Florida; Norma J. Perez-Brena, Texas State University

Our historical era has witnessed the explosion of overt racism and other versions of both explicit and implicit exclusionary behaviors, manifested in individual and group behaviors, daily practices, policies, and even armed conflicts against the “other” and “outgroups”. These “out-groups” can be based on class, race/ethnicity, religion, birthplace, gendered behaviors, sexual orientation, ability, and other sociocultural characteristics. We also know that these categories are socially constructed and that for many individuals and groups, intersectionality creates even more risk. As we strive for inclusion, diversity and pluralism around the world, fundamentalist reactions to exclude the “other” appear commonplace. This special topic meeting will highlight research from a wide variety of interdisciplinary perspectives to understand how prejudice and discrimination is developed, socialized, or manifested; the consequences of growing up in marginalized groups; and, the promising policy and intervention programs that can help prevent the development of prejudice or buffer the effects of marginalization.

2020 SPECIAL TOPIC MEETING

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

1. Submission Limits: There is no limit for presenting roles for either members or nonmembers of SRCD.
2. Presenting Roles, Defined:

  - b. Discussant of a symposium
  - c. Presenter of a paper
  - d. Presenter of a poster

Additional Considerations:

1. Only presenting roles will be protected from schedule conflicts (see role definitions above).

3. Do not submit the same material more than once, (e.g., as a poster and as a symposium presentation or as a paper in two symposia).
4. SRCD normally does not accept submissions that have been presented or published before the meeting unless they differ from the original in additional data or new findings or additional comparisons, etc. Even in cases where SRCD members may not have had access to your original presentation, the current submission should not duplicate an earlier presentation.
5. During the submission process, you will be asked to select both a primary and secondary review panel.
6. Plan ahead and submit early!
  - The Submission site will open mid-September.
  - You may edit your submission at any time prior to the submission deadline, October 8.
  - View and/or print your submission proof and review it carefully.
  - No changes can be made after the submission deadline, October 8.
7. SRCD membership is not required to submit; however, we encourage you to take advantage of the benefits of membership: Members in the Society are offered a significant discount on conference registration in addition to eligibility for a variety of Society resources and initiatives.

2020 SPECIAL TOPIC MEETING

2. Cultural Processes
(e.g., acculturation, acculturative stress, cultural values, gender socialization)
3. Discrimination, Equity, and Justice
(e.g., economic; incarceration; moral outcomes; systemic discrimination; social policy; violence)
4. Education
(e.g., academic achievement; other educational outcomes; bilingual education; college and career pipelines; early childhood education; special education)
5. Families, Parenting, and Relationships
(e.g., friendships, marriage/divorce; peers, romantic relationships; same-sex)
6. Health and Wellbeing
(e.g., physical, mental, and sexual health; biological processes)

(e.g., bias; discrimination; in/out group; peers; prejudice; sexual orientation)

SUBMISSION FORMATS

Submission Formats: Submissions will be accepted in the following formats and all will be peer-reviewed.

Individual Poster Presentation. Posters are individual, free-standing research presentations. They are the appropriate format when material can be explained briefly, is suited for graphic or visual presentation, and/or the presenter would benefit from high levels of interaction and discussion. Each poster occupies one 8' wide x 4' high poster board for the entire session.

Individual "Flash Talk" Paper Presentation. Individual "flash talk" papers are free-standing research presentations. A flash talk is a 6-to-8-minute presentation highlighting the key attributes of a research study and may include 4-to-8 slides. Six-to-eight individual flash talks that are thematically related will be included in one session with an assigned moderator engaging the audience in discussion. Individual "flash talk" papers that are highly rated but cannot be accepted under this category (either because there are not 6-8 related papers on the topic or the maximum number of "flash talk" sessions has been reached) will become Individual Poster Presentations if and only if submitters have indicated that they would like to present the research as a poster.

Paper Symposium. A cohesive cluster of research presentations and theoretical perspectives focused on a specific topic and emphasizing conceptual issues and an integration of findings with representation from multiple institutions. In the traditional format, the chair briefly presents the theme of the symposium, presenters speak for 15 minutes each, and a discussant provides an overview.

2020 SPECIAL TOPIC MEETING

At least 15 minutes MUST be set aside for audience discussion. Requirements: 1 chair with optional 2nd chair if there is no discussant, 3 presentations plus 1 discussant or 4 presentations.

Conversation Roundtable. This format is intended as a forum for a discussion of overarching questions/issues, not for presentation of specific research findings. The roundtable is an engaging conversation among three or four scholars and the audience about ideas, methods, or professional- and research-related experiences. A roundtable must have representation from multiple institutions. A central question or theme should serve as a focus for the roundtable. The broader purpose of a roundtable is to encourage networking among individuals or groups who may benefit from shared experiences or from hearing different views on a topic. The audience must be given 30 minutes to respond to the questions/issues raised and to introduce additional questions and comments to the panel.

REVIEW PROCESS AND CRITERIA FOR ALL SUBMISSIONS

1. Submissions are rated according to the following criteria:
  - a. Clarity of formulation/conceptualization
  - b. Adequacy of methods
  - c. Appropriateness of interpretations
  - d. Importance of topic
  - e. For multi-presenter formats: Cohesion among presentations, relevance of presentations to the topic, and expression of different views.
2. A submission that does not adhere to the rules and procedures will receive a low rating. For example,
  - a. Do not include author names, unless required, or other identifying material (i.e., grant support) as part of the integrative statement or the abstract.
  - b. Submitting material more than once could result in a submission not being reviewed.
  - c. The abstract lacks sufficient data—coded and analyzed, even if not yet complete—to provide a basis for reviewer evaluation. Evaluation of the methods will be sensitive to qualitative and case study approaches as well as quantitative approaches.
3. Reviewers may consider SRCD's strategic plan when evaluating submissions that are of equivalent scientific merit.
4. Symposia and Conversation Roundtables must have representation from multiple institutions.

ENTERING DATA INTO THE SUBMISSION WEBSITE

7. Individual requests regarding scheduling may be made at the time of submission by entering them in the “details” step.
